AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

1. The Complaint fails to allege sufficient facts to state a claim against Bradshaw under any of the theories against her. Plaintiffs’ pleading of their claims is vague, conclusory, and without sufficient facts to state a claim or have a reasonable likelihood of success on the merits.

2. The Complaint fails to allege sufficient facts to state a claim against Bradshaw upon which relief can be granted in Counts IX, X-XIII due to a lack of standing pursuant to RSMo. § 537.020.

3. The Complaint fails to allege sufficient facts to state a claim against Bradshaw in Count XIII by failing to demonstrate that either or both Plaintiffs were in the zone of danger.

4. Bradshaw specifically denies the allegations made in the Complaint, but any actions by Bradshaw were discretionary in nature and taken in good faith and this defendant is therefore protected from liability by the doctrine of qualified immunity. Bradshaw is protected from liability and suit under the doctrines of qualified, absolute, judicial, and official immunity.

5. Bradshaw specifically denies the existence of any causal connection between Plaintiffs’ alleged damages and the action or inaction attributed to Bradshaw, as alleged by Plaintiffs in the Complaint. Bradshaw is protected from liability pursuant to the public duty doctrine because she was performing a governmental function to benefit the public. Plaintiffs failed to state a claim for exemplary damages against Bradshaw because Plaintiffs have not pled facts that demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that she engaged in outrageous conduct based upon an evil motive or reckless indifference to the rights of Plaintiffs or their Decedent.

6. The negligence and non-compliance with rules, policies, protocols, procedures, requests, and directives exhibited by Plaintiffs' Decedent during the events in question contributed to the injuries and damages alleged.

7. Plaintiffs' Decedent, by his own conduct, provoked or consented to any alleged acts or omissions by this Defendant by refusing instructions of various correctional officers and refusing to comply.

8. Plaintiffs' Decedent, by his own conduct, assumed the risk of injury by refusing instructions of various correctional officers and refusing to comply.

9. The Complaint meets the standard of being frivolous within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(d) because Plaintiffs have no reasonable likelihood of success on the merits. All defenses available under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 are herein invoked. Bradshaw cannot be held liable under a theory of respondeat superior.

10. Bradshaw did not violate the United States Constitution or any statutory right held by Decedent in her actions or inactions during the relevant events.

11. The negligence, fault, conduct, behavior, acts of Decedent or one or more persons or entities over which Bradshaw had no control or right to control caused the injuries alleged herein, and the fault of these persons or entities should be compared and any damages be reduced or apportioned in accordance with Missouri law. An allocation of fault pursuant to RSMo. §

537.067 should be made if this Defendant is found to bear less than 51% fault. All limitations in Missouri law applicable to Bradshaw pursuant to RSMo. § 537.067 are invoked.

12. Each Government Official is only liable for his or her own alleged misconduct (which is expressly denied herein). Plaintiffs fail to identify specific conduct attributable to Bradshaw and is speculative.

13. Plaintiffs allege that multiple actors may be liable for their damages. If a Defendant or other Party makes a settlement with Plaintiffs, or if Plaintiffs receive anything of value from such a Party, individual, or entity, the amount of such payment or consideration should be treated as a payment in full satisfaction of the damages of Plaintiffs or, in the alternative, that the amount of payment or consideration should be set off against any judgment that may be entered against Bradshaw. Bradshaw may claim reliance upon RSMo. § 537.060, such that Bradshaw is entitled to a reduction in the amount of money from any verdict of any agreements and/or settlements with any Defendant herein, whether previously a Defendant, or currently a Defendant, including but not limited to any Party who has settled, or may in the future settle with Plaintiffs, and Bradshaw is entitled to a reduction of the claim or verdict against her by the stipulated amount of the agreement, or by the amount of consideration paid, whichever is greater.

14. Pleading hypothetically and in the alternative, Bradshaw states that the sole and proximate cause of the alleged damages of and harm to Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Decedent, if any, were the intervening acts or omissions of persons or entities other than Bradshaw over whom Bradshaw has no control, including without limitation the medical characteristics, negligence, fault, conduct and behavior of Plaintiffs' Decedent. Bradshaw committed no act that proximately caused the death of Plaintiffs' Decedent. Fault should be compared and reduced/apportioned under comparative fault law.

15. In the event damages are awarded for future damages in excess of the amount specified in RSMo. § 538.220(2), said damages should be payable in periodic or installment payments.

16. The Complaint fails to set forth special damages, or allegations, with enough specificity or certainty. Any verdict rendered in this case for future damages must be itemized and expressed by the trier of fact at present value pursuant to RSMo. § 538.215.2. In the event non-economic damages are awarded to Plaintiffs, the limitation on non-economic damages (damage caps) provided under RSMo. § 538.210 or other applicable statute shall be applied, and in accordance with RSMo. § 538.215, or said statute, any award of non-economic damages in excess of the limit shall be reduced by the Court to the maximum amount allowed by law.

17. In the event Plaintiffs are awarded any damages, Plaintiffs are not entitled to any recovery for mental or emotional injury for the reasons set forth in the Prison Litigation Reform Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1997, et seq., including 42 U.S.C. § 1997(e). Further, Plaintiffs and/or their Decedent did not exhaust available administrative remedies, including grievance procedures, and conditions precedent under this law.

18. RSMo. § 538.300 prohibits pre-judgment and post-judgment interest in the circumstances herein, and Plaintiffs' prayer for such relief should therefore be stricken.

19. The claim(s) of Decedent's sister for wrongful death lack standing, as she is a Class 2 litigant under RSMo. § 537.080(1) (“...or by the father or mother of the deceased, natural or adoptive”) and may only bring a claim if no Class 1 litigant exists. Here Decedent's mother is alive and prosecuting this case. See Call v. Heard, 925 S.W.2d 840, 850 (Mo. banc 1996). Neither Plaintiff has opened a probate estate in the Circuit Court of Cole County, Missouri. No personal representative therein has been appointed. Plaintiffs lack standing under the survivorship statute, RSMo. § 537.020.

20. Pursuant to RSMo. § 490.715, the actual amount necessary to satisfy the financial obligation to a health care provider represents the value of the medical treatment rendered.

21. Plaintiffs have failed to allege facts sufficient to give rise to a claim for punitive damages against Bradshaw.

22. An award of punitive damages deprives Bradshaw of property without due process of law in violation of her rights under federal and/or state constitutions, and the standard for determining whether to impose punitive damages is vague and indefinite, does not provide adequate guidance to the trier of fact, and fails to require proof of an appropriate standard.

23. Regarding the events described in the Complaint, Bradshaw never employed conduct or failed to employ conduct in a manner that was intentional, willful, wanton, or malicious, and never showed a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard of any rights, such that Bradshaw would be liable for punitive damages.

24. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages, if granted in the amount pled or any other amount, would be grossly excessive and would violate the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and the Missouri Constitution.

25. Bradshaw has not received fair notice that she could be subject to substantial punitive damages in this state for the conduct alleged.

26. Plaintiffs seek punitive damages greatly disproportionate to any actual damages and far exceed any civil or criminal sanctions that could be imposed as similar alleged misconduct.

27. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages would violate the Eighth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and the Missouri Constitution because it seeks to impose an excessive fine on Bradshaw, is penal in nature, and seeks to punish Bradshaw using vague standards.

28. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages would violate the Equal Protection Clause to the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and the Missouri Constitution because different amounts can be awarded against two or more Defendants for the same or similar act or conduct.

29. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages violates the Due Process clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and the Missouri Constitution because it seeks to punish Bradshaw based on unconstitutionally vague standards.

30. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages would violate the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and the Missouri Constitution because it would expose Bradshaw to multiple punishments and fines for the same conduct.

31. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages violates the Due Process clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the Missouri Constitution in the absence of an order bifurcating that claim from the issue of liability.

32. Any award of punitive damages in this case would violate the Separation of Powers Doctrine since this Court and the jury would be usurping the exclusive power of the legislature to define crimes and establish punishment.

33. To the extent Plaintiffs seek punitive damages based at least in part on harm done to persons or entities other than Plaintiffs themselves, such an award would violate the due process provisions of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and their equivalent in the Missouri Constitution.

34. Bradshaw reserves the right to amend, modify, or supplement her defenses as discovery in this matter proceeds.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Complaint for Damages and raised her affirmative and other defenses, Defendant Bryanne Bradshaw requests the Court to dismiss the Complaint, alternatively find in favor of this Defendant on the Complaint, award this Defendant costs of this action, and award such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Defendant Bryanne Bradshaw demands a trial by jury on all claims so triable.

Respectfully submitted,
